

a dove in a tux for sure and did they carry trays with salmon sandwiches and thimbles of twinings and cucumber bits like good little waiters aren't they smart like fluent in six languages or am I thinking of blue whales yes I know it greats are both lovely and moltenly irritating when they eat for example chicken my great uncle opens to entire wings older lower flying times asks after the washski after the barnski asks after eye-talian dressin asks who it was what last saw that neighbor of ours the big dumb fat swede and the hay ride cost a nickel do you think we had a nickel? no we shore didn't though he can lord one tough over us none have known flour sack underwear to nettle the privates as we saunter through barcelona lonesome and detached from the war ploosh ploosh went his niece's arms into washing suds in other folks' houses that's how they made ends meet after max got run over by a hay wagon and lived
